Charles Edward Haines Charles Edward Haines, 78, of Bloomington, died at 8:45 pm, Saturday, August 3, 2013 at the Bickford House in Bloomington. He will be cremated. There will be a private family service at a late date. Carmody-Flynn Williamsburg Funeral Home, Bloomington is in charge of arrangements. Charles was born on September 11, 1934 in Hastings, Nebraska, the son of Clarence Eldridge and Frieda Agnes Schouborg Haines. He married June L. Canick on September 22, 1956 in Chicago. She survives. He is also survived by three children, Craig Haines, Bloomington, Charles Haines, Salt Lake City, Utah and Sandy (Scott) Frazier, Bloomington; three grandchildren, Brandise, Christopher and Connor; four great grandchildren, Gauge, C.J., Athena and Isaac; two sisters, Marlys Anderson and Patricia West, both of Nebraska; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents. Charles was an electronics specialist in the US Navy from 1954-1958. He received his bachelors and masters degrees from Northwestern University. Charles was a math teacher, football and basketball coach at Arlington High School and later Hersey High School, both in Arlington Heights, Illinois. He also taught for several years at DeVry Technical Institute. Charles was an avid Nebraska Cornhuskers fan. To express condolences online, please visit www.carmodyflynn.com.